USER CHOICE FUNDING

The User Choice program provides a public funding contribution towards the cost of training and assessment services for eligible Queensland apprentices and trainees.

To be eligible to receive a government contribution, the apprentice or trainee must:

- have entered into a Training Contract for a qualification that is funded by the department (SIT30622 - Certificate III in Hospitality)
- be registered on DELTA with a commencement date or recommencement date on or after 1 July 2020
- select a training provider that holds SAS status for their nominated qualification (Coal Train holds SAS status for the SIT30622 - Certificate III in Hospitality)

Participants completing the SIT30622 - Certificate III in Hospitality under a Traineeship will be required to attend the face to face training sessions each month along with recording workplace tasks in a Trainee Record Book and completing post session workbooks with activities in the workplace.

If you are interested in signing up an employee into a Hospitality Traineeship you will need to address the following:

- Ensure that there is a Supervisor in the workplace that holds a Certificate III in Hospitality or there are Supervisors who collectively hold related units that the Trainee will be undertaking. Supervisors may also be able to provide demonstrated competency evidence to fulfill this requirement also
- Contact an Australian Apprentice Support Network Provider (AASN) to discuss Trainee eligibility, general information, incentives etc. regarding Traineeships (Busy at Work, MRAEL, etc.)
- Upon signing up a Hospitality Trainee and selecting your Supervising Registered Training Organisation (SRTO) the Trainee can then commence training towards their qualification

FEES

Student contribution fees under the User Choice program are set at $1.60 per nominal hour for each unit of competency/module.

Fees are payable by the employer or a third party. If the student pays the fees, the employer must reimburse their trainee within six months of payment. Fee will vary depending on if students have eligible exemptions. Full contribution fee will be $595.00 and for students who have concession or exemptions, contribution fee will be $238.00
